

LA FOLLETTE HAS BROKEN SILENCE

SAYS RECENT ELECTION IS NOT A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

GIVES HIS REASONS TODAY

Says it is the Repudiation of Ballinger and Aldrich by the People.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Nov. 17.—Senator Robert M. La Follette claims that the defeat of the republican party through out the east in the November election "is not a democratic victory. It is a repudiation in plain terms that the people of this country will have no more senate and house committees in the American congress dictated by Morgan's private office, no more bills drawn by his attorneys in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston." He declares it is a "repudiation of Aldrichism in the senate and Cannonism in the house," and condemns the "Taft administration, Ballinger, Wickersham and their like."

"What was the real significance of the election of November 8?" asked Senator La Follette in a statement today. "Was it an expression of confidence in the democratic party? By an overwhelming vote in 1908, the people refused to trust that party with control. The judgment was deliberate, conclusive. There could be no reversal of that decision, no hope of restored public confidence for the democratic party except on a record of substantial reformation and achievement, commanding public approval."

"Since 1908 the democratic party has achieved nothing. Indeed, its record in congress has been such as to confirm the judgment of 1908. Aldrich in the senate and Cannon in the house have at all times been able to find enough special interest democrats ready either to obstruct themselves during roll call or, if required, to be present and vote for the 'system,' when their votes were necessary. The democratic party in the election of November 8 did not gain a vote on the strength of its own achievement. Judged as a party by its record, it would have been as badly beaten as two years ago. In fact, the true democracy of the democratic party has been allowed out by the special interests, and progressive democrats have aided in progressive legislation only where they have been allied with the progressive republicans."

"It was not a democratic victory in the sense that democracy won. It was a republican defeat. It condemned the Taft administration—Ballinger, Wickersham, Hitchcock, and their like. It is a repudiation of Aldrichism in the senate and Cannonism in the house. It is a stern warning to the republican party to renounce in executive and legislative departments of government, the leadership of administration officers, senators and representatives who are in fact the potty servants of Morgan's system. It is a declaration in plain terms that the people of this country will have no more senate and house committees in the American congress dictated by Morgan's private office, no more bills drawn by his attorneys in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston. It serves notice that laws shall be enacted and government administered in the public interests of the men and the party responsible will be, driven out of power."

"The election was otherwise deeply significant. Where insurgency was strong, there was real progressive leadership; loyal and unfaltering. It won loyal and unfaltering support. No progressive leader, however popular, was able to make the progressive vote subservient to any party. Wherever attempted, thousands of progressives withheld their votes in disgust or cast them for democratic as a rebuke and a warning against any attempts to compromise the progressive cause for a party advantage."

"In the final analysis, the real significance of the November election is that the American people did their best to express their approval of progress and their disapproval of reaction and compromise."

This will throw England into the throes of another general election. It is at least barely possible that the cabinet may also resign which would make it an extremely difficult situation for the government to meet. The first reading of the veto bill was given in the House of Lords last night and the vote will come on Monday. It is certain that parliament will be dissolved unless the unexpected happens.

The lords sitting as a committee of the whole, today, adopted Earl Rosebery's resolution for the reconstruction of the upper house. The resolutions provide that the lords shall consist of lords of parliament chosen by the whole body of hereditary peers from among themselves and by nomination by the crown of those sitting by virtue of their offices and qualifications held by them and those chosen from outside.

enclosed. His pulse, however, is slightly high and intermittent.

The solitary retirement of Count Tolstoy with but one companion, a physician, has excited unusual interest all over Russia. Since the morning of October 10 he did not communicate with his friends or relatives. The countess was in despair, feeling that in view of his enfeebled condition he will not be able to stand the hardships of complete retirement. The seriousness of the situation was given in a letter to his wife, in which Count Tolstoy said he has decided to spend his remaining days in solitary confinement.

Later Tolstoy returned to civilization and was taken violently ill due to the exposure of his flight. It was reported he had made his peace with the Greek church but this proved untrue and then it was said that he was going to Canada to join a religious sect but this also was disproved later. His wife is with him now in Tula.

Tolstoy's malady up to four o'clock this afternoon had taken no definite turn. The count is very weak but physicians have hopes that his strong constitution will win in the struggle against the disease.

EASY LIFE IN SWISS PRISON

So Much Luxury That Convicts Have 'Little Desire to Escape—Scenes at Bern.

London.—Prison life in Switzerland is a luxury instead of a punishment. The comic opera jail at Thorburg, where the inmates did as they pleased, has only recently been suppressed by the Bern authorities, yet details are published of a similar institution at Bern, in the canton of Oswald.

Barn is apparently an ideal penal resort, for the happy criminals who are sentenced to terms of "detention" in that institution have a far better time than hundreds of "free" Swiss citizens who are forced to earn their bread.

A correspondent of a Lausanne paper states that he was passing through Bern when he saw a number of men dressed in dark blue clothes with white stripes walking about the village smoking and joking.

Others were seated in a cafe and some were working in leisurely manner carrying bricks for the construction of a new building. To his astonishment the correspondent found that the men were convicts from the national prison close by.

These convicts were permitted to leave the prison early in the morning and find work around Bern or walk about the country until nightfall, when they return of their own accord to the prison.

They are unaccompanied by wardens and there is nothing to prevent their sleeping, but they are far too comfortable to think of relinquishing their quarters, for they have as much liberty as other men and are, moreover, fed and lodged for nothing.

The money earned by these convicts who choose to work can be spent as they like. One convict who is employed as a gardener by a local magistrate sends his monthly salary to his wife and children.

Two or three convicts "escaped" several weeks ago, but they eventually returned to the prison in a half-famished condition, and after being severely reprimanded they were allowed to return to their apartments.

The pallbearers, Oscar and Peter Hammarlund, Carl and Oscar Quorann, Melvin and Alfred Guinness. The remains were laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mrs. John Tuckwood.
Arriving here at 11:20 over the Northwestern road from Chicago, the remains of the late Mrs. John Tuckwood were taken direct to Oak Hill chapel, where services were conducted by the Rev. John McKinney. Many local friends attended the services and beautiful flowers showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Henry Rogers, A. G. Anderson, Henry Woodcock and Charles Riker were the pallbearers.

Poor Poel.
A New York man has paid $245 for the MS. of a parody of "The Raven." This, also, would greatly amuse Poe if he could know about it.

PARLIAMENT OF DOMINION OPENS

Lord Grey Alludes in His Address to Reciprocity Negotiations With United States.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 17.—The third session of the eleventh parliament of Canada was opened today by Lord Grey. The occasion was marked with the usual ceremonial. The customary military escort accompanied the Governor-General from Rideau Hall to the parliament buildings and return. As his excellency entered the senate chamber there was a booming of guns from Nepean Point. An unusually brilliant attendance of society listened to the delivery of the speech from the throne. The latter contained, among other things, the announcement that reciprocity negotiations have been entered into with the United States and during the session a bill will be put through legalizing the work of the negotiations.

The government program of business does not promise to be so extensive as usual this session. In addition to possible action in regard to the tariff the important measures to be laid before parliament will include a bill to revise the Banking Act, a bill providing for more adequate government supervision of the manufacture and sale of explosives, a proposal for government control of terminal elevators, a bill looking to the conservation of the forests, and several minor measures left over from last session.

Numerous questions of transportation will doubtless come up for discussion and action. These will include the question of the government policy in regard to the construction and operation of the Hudson Bay railway, the deepening of the Welland canal, the carrying out of the government's policy of constructing a 25-foot channel in the St. Lawrence up to Montreal and a provision for the proposed international tribunal for the control of railway rates on international traffic.

The much discussed question of the extension of the boundaries of Manitoba, Quebec and Ontario may be brought up for final action, providing the interested provinces reach an agreement in the matter.

Private legislation promises to be particularly extensive with reference to railway projects.

The session is given additional interest by the probability that it will be the last before another general election. The opposition, therefore, may be expected to prolong it to a considerable extent with a view of getting campaign material. Adjournment will probably be reached by the end of April, which will be sufficient to permit Sir Wilfrid Laurier and other members of the ministry to attend the imperial conference to be held in London next May and the coronation ceremonies in June.

LABOR COURTS NEEDED.

"At a time when strikes tie up business and cause general inconvenience, the long-suffering public often wonders if it has any rights which employer or employee is bound to respect. Paris has lately passed through one of the most expensive strikes in the history of modern industrial Europe, and now Paris has just been in the grip of a strike which has cost the general public great financial loss, to say nothing of the loss to the companies from suspended business and the loss to strikers of a considerable sum in wages. The strike in Paris was short-lived, but it cost the government—that is to say, the public—fifty millions of dollars, for the railroads there are owned by the state. The ordinary course of travel, business and the transportation of merchandise was at a standstill and the capital nearly starved for lack of food.

"The New York strike would not have been a large affair, neither would the public have been greatly inconvenienced, if it had been confined to the employees of one company; but it extended as a 'sympathetic strike' to all of the express companies and the general public got neither 'sympathy' nor service.

"Strikes are out of date. They are bad for the employer, the employee and the public. Labor courts should be established which should be open to all and whose decisions should be compulsory. Both sides have their rights, but those who would be amply protected by such tribunals.

"Those sensible suggestions from an exchange are worth considering, for strikes are unprofitable to both employer and employee and in many instances to a long suffering public. A strike which ties up traffic or interferes with business in which the people generally are interested, should never be permitted, and the labor court suggested would solve the problem.

If the garment workers' grievance could have been submitted to this kind of a tribunal the strike now on in Chicago, which is causing so much suffering, might have been avoided.
The conflict between capital and labor will never be settled except through mutual understanding. It matters not which side wins in an open fight, the defeated party will continue to nurture a grievance and this means renewed hostilities at the first opportunity.

THE DAIRY COW.

While the dairy cow may influence legislation and make life a burden, to oleomargarine, her principal competitor, the topic of the cow and the dairy, is not a political topic, and therefore safe to discuss in these piping times of agitation. This thought was in the mind of the editor of the National Dairy Union, when he wrote the following eulogy and scattered it broadcast on the troubled waters.

"The dairy cow does more than bring financial success to the dairy farmer. She makes him a better citizen than he would otherwise be. Her influence upon home conditions is a most pleasing contribution to those factors which are responsible for the changed conditions which prevail in the farm homes of today. Thousands of these homes are now characterized by comfort and happiness where formerly they were blighted by drudgery and unhappiness.

"Better financial conditions have contributed to this change, and the dairy cow has been in no small measure responsible. She has contributed in still another way. The dairy cow teaches kindness. Her owner soon learns that only by treating her kindly can he secure the highest possible returns from her, and she responds quickly to kind words and proper care. Her disposition is one that the human family might well emulate. She is patient and long suffering, acquiescing meekly in the arrangements made by her owner for carrying on the dairy business, striving at all times to repay him for every effort made for her care and comfort.

"The mothers of the family, as they come in contact with her and her kindly disposition, are influenced for good. As they appreciate the financial benefit to come from caring for her well they take a deeper interest in her. In doing so they unconsciously cultivate those qualities which make them better citizens.

"The dairy cow—the prototype of man's best friend—is wielding a great influence than she is generally credited with. She has always been found in the front ranks in the march of civilization and no agricultural country can long prosper without her. She is a potent factor in the upbuilding of such a country, financially, and socially, and a wise people will appreciate her and encourage the industry of which she is the foundation."

Professor Wiley, chief of the Bureau of Chemistry, has had a vision. He sees in the slump in prices of corn and pork a deep-laid political plot in which the unholly packers are playing a close second. The professor should stick to his bottles and not seek to add fuel to a much disturbed atmosphere. It only requires a year to raise a hog, and $10 pork has stimulated the industry. Only half the time is necessary to produce a corn crop and nature smiled on the man with a hog this year to the extent of a three billion bushel crop. Prices are coming down because of a surplus of hogs and corn.

In another column will be found the verdict of the senior senator on the landslide which occurred November 8th. The people settled the question the day after election and went on sawing wood as though nothing had happened. There were as many opinions as to the cause as there were explanations concerning the panic in 1907. The senator's opinion is a little slow in coming to the surface, but it will be duly recorded and the turbidence overlooked, for old acquaintance sake.

The conservation of natural resources is being vigorously exploited by land promoters in the south and southwest. The waste places, like the Everglades of Florida, are being platted and sold in ten acre lots, at fabulous prices, and it ambitions are realized, to any large extent, the cities will soon be depopulated, for everybody will be running a truck farm. The craze is on. It beats mining stock to a "frazzle" and costs less for the experience.

Colonel Roosevelt has come out from his Oyster Bay environment long enough to say that the war is on, and the first defeat will simply stimulate renewed activity. The colonel may be right, but the people are anticipating an era of rest and peace, from which they will be slow to rally, at even the call of so magnetic a leader as the man with the "big stick."

Uncle Walt
THE POET PHILOSOPHER
By WALT MASON.
(Copyright, 1909, by George Matthew Adams.)

Once more, my friends, do I decry,
The good old trusty pumpkin pie!
It stands upon the shelf, serene, a pie
that's fit for king or queen! Of all good fodder it's the best; it surely soothes the savage breast, and fills the lowly home with cheer, and dries the old man's bitter tear. When Autumn comes, with willing breeze, and lonely birds in naked trees, when in the wind and solemn woods are fallen leaves and kindred goods, the housewife who is good and wise gets busy making pumpkin pies. With pots and pans and Chinamen she starts that best of human jobs. She gets a pumpkin, fresh from nature's hand—and then she whacks the same apart, and scrapes the innards from the shell, and makes her pies, with joyous yell.

And when her husband comes to dine, so hungry that it makes him whine,
and sees those pumpkin pies on deck, he shoves a couple down his neck, then folds the napkin in his arms, and says she's worth ten Kansas farms. The good old yellow pumpkin pie, O never may its glory die! Long may the women of this land make pumpkin pies, with skillful hand.

Heart to Heart Talks.
By EDWIN A. NYE

A MOTHER'S UNION.
There is room for a new labor union.
It might be named the Amalgamated Mothers and Housekeepers' Solidarity of the World.

It would comprise in its membership the largest number of skilled wage earners (without salary) in existence—the women who keep house and rear children.

The hours of labor would be restricted to twenty-four in one day.
And the salary?

The free and unlimited colnago of appreciation and affection.
If the organization could be effected long enough to sustain one strike there would never be another. The stopping of the entire domestic machinery of the world for even one day would be sufficient. Grievances, therefore, would be promptly considered and concessions readily granted.

As it is now—
Mother is up first, starts breakfast, calls father, dresses, the children, washes the dishes, cleans, scrubs, dusts, gets dinner, sows, gets supper, dresses, undresses the children, suppers. A thousand and one things during the day, to any nothing of the hours of the night given over to sick children or fretted babies.

"Eight hours?"
There would be chaos in the domestic world if the mothers demanded even twice eight hours in a day.

And in all this, mind you—
Day, after day, night after night, with the pull on her slender strength, the rasp on her frayed nerves, the drag on her vitality, the drain on her spirits, the working mother keeps sweet!

In the midst of countless interruptions and petty annoyances, despite the hard, unending, complex, duties that would kill a man—
She is gentle and patient!
Can you blame her—this silent, faithful drudge—if she wants her pay?

Not an envelope on Saturday night.
No, no; not that.
What, then?
The love and gratitude of those for whom she toils and suffers and sacrifices.

When you think of the loveless humps, where she is not only denied her pay, but is abused besides, it makes you want to organize the union.

EARLY RISING BAD FOR BOYS

Londoner Maintains That Children Up Before Sunrise Are Usually Dull During Day.

London.—The old idea that it is good for boys to get up early and humle about, was vigorously assailed at a public inquiry at Spring gardens in the London county council by laws regulating the employment of children under fourteen.

Among the witnesses was Mr. Jackman, a London county council headmaster, who said employment in barbers' shops was particularly objectionable, as the boys learned to bet and talk about horses and horse racing.

Young children who had to get up early were liable to be dull during the day.

It was, he continued, unnatural for boys to go to bed at 7:30 in the evening. It was dangerous to health to get up early in the cold winter mornings.

"To say it is not natural for boys to go to bed at 7:30 is beside the point," a doctor said, in commenting on the evidence. "The natural thing to do is to sleep when you are tired and get up when you wake.

"Children of fourteen want quite nine hours' sleep and should not have to work so that their systems are overtaxed.

"If they do it is quite probable that getting up in the dark on raw winter mornings will, particularly when they have to trudge through snow and slush, give rise to bronchial and lung trouble. They are not in a condition to resist chills.

"But you never hear of a well fed boy who rises with the dawn to go out and amuse himself coming to any harm. It doesn't do to coddle boys—and it is wicked to overwork them.
Overworked children are failures: as adults, physically if not mentally."

FAT MEN ARE ALWAYS HAPPY

No Heavyweights Among Criminals or Dyspeptics—All Are Thin, Says Quimby.

Boston.—"Be fat and you'll be happy," says W. D. Quimby, president of the Fat Men's club of New England.
"Although I am not much of a historian, I can assure you the history of fat men will point out a good many facts that would startle the people at large and the insurance companies in particular.

"You never hear of a fat man drinking or ever hear of a real fat man committing a crime? Of course you didn't, for they never do. Crimes, as a rule, are committed by men weighing between 118 and 145. Very few criminals weigh over 180, and crime by men weighing over two hundred is practically unknown.

"You never see a fat man drunk.
They don't get drunk. The reason is not that they can hold more liquor;
they have no unnatural craving for it.
And right here lies the fundamental difference between the two. The thin man has difficulty in digesting more than 30 per cent. Dyspepsia is to be found among thin men, not fat."

DAIRY CASES IN MUNICIPAL COURT

John Hart and Howard Edwards of Magnolia Paid Fines for Selling Adulterated Milk to Monroe Cheese Factory.

On complaint of Assistant State Dairy and Food Commissioner Fred Marty of Monroe, John Hart and Howard Edwards of the town of Magnolia were brought up for trial and fined in municipal court this morning for adulteration of milk sold to the Monroe Cheese company. On October 31, the inspector charged Hart with selling milk to the cheese company containing less than 8% percent of milk solids as required by the state law. Hart pleaded guilty to the charge, admitting that he had knowingly sold milk containing less than the required percentage of milk solids. He was fined $25 and costs of $51. Edwards, a neighbor of Hart's, pleaded guilty to the same charge and paid a fine of $25 and costs amounting to $30.80. District attorney J. L. Fisher represented the state in both actions. In the Edwards case, the district attorney stated that the inspector had informed him that there had been water in a can which Edwards intended to use to take the milk to the creamery. Edwards explained this by saying he had used the can for carrying water in the morning and about a quart had been unintentionally left in it.

Assault Case Dismissed.
The case against Hart Cavey, charged with assaulting George Osterlander, when called in municipal court this morning was dismissed. Osterlander, failing to appear against Cavey.

Officials of Northwestern Road Investigating Accidents in Which Trainmen Were Injured.

A peculiar circumstance is found in the hurrying of the stone through the window of the dining car of a train on the Northwestern road on Tuesday night, in which Conductor P. O. Lester had his neck cut by pieces of flying glass, in that it was the second incident of the kind to occur within a week. The previous one was that in which Engineer Charles Stearns, a former resident of Janesville, was struck by a missile and rendered unconscious. Stearns is now in a serious condition in a Chicago hospital. The two accidents occurred between this city and Brooklyn. The suspicions of officials of the road have been aroused and they are investigating the two cases thoroughly. If caught the offenders will be severely dealt with.

STOLE FROM HOLLAND'S QUEEN

MAN AND WOMAN HELD AT PHILADELPHIA FOR ALLEGED ROBBERY.

LEAVE AN AMAZING TRAIL

VIET
Couple Meet While in Employ of President Fallieres and Are Only Caught After a Chase Extending Through Three Countries.

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—Held to await requisition papers from New York a man and woman were arraigned before Magistrate Scott at the city hall, whose careers are said to be marked by a remarkable trail of robberies.

This couple are said to number Queen Wilhelmina of Holland and members of several noble families in Europe among their alleged victims and to have conducted many of the schemes while in the employ of President Fallieres at his chateau near Paris.

Chased Through Three Countries.
The man is John Dillea and the woman is Idalia de Muelmeister, and they were caught in this city after a chase which extended through this country, South America and Europe. The couple are said to have robbed many wealthy families in this country. The police mention one robbery in Chicago of a necklace valued at $8,000.

While Dillea is married and has a wife and four children in Belgium, the home of both of the prisoners, he is said to have told the woman arrested with him to believe that he was a single man and he had planned, it is said, to plunder until they had raised $200,000, then go to France and to be married.

Met in Fallieres' Chateau.
Miss de Muelmeister informed the police that they met when he came to the chateau of President Fallieres, where she was employed as a domestic, and worked as a coachman.

FEARS FOR LIFE, GETS A WRIT
Banker Procures Injunction to Restrict Creditors From Killing Him.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 17.—Novel use was made of the injunction in this city when Arthur Crane, one-time president of the defunct State Savings and Commercial bank, obtained from Superior Judge Howell a restraining order to prevent the depositors and creditors of the suspended institution from killing him. The order is directed against S. P. Young, receiver of the bank, and for bids him to inflict the creditors or others to do violence to Crane, at least, until November 18, when the matter will be fought out in court. Crane charges that Young and Bank Examiner Alden Anderson are in possession of the bank's assets without due authority of law, and his alleged grievance against Young is that the latter has put the responsibility for the present predicament of the bank's creditors on him.

CARNEGIE DONATES $1,500,000.

Total Contributed to Pittsburgh Technical School is $4,500,000.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 17.—Andrew Carnegie has decided to resume the building of his great technical school at Pittsburgh, and the people of this city were notified that he has contributed another $1,500,000 toward it, the money to be available at once. It has been more than two years since Mr. Carnegie contributed to this great institution, which is now nearly complete and since his last contribution there have been many reports of disagreement between Andrew Carnegie and those in charge of the school's construction here. The last contribution makes a total of $4,500,000 actually spent thus far by Mr. Carnegie in the erection and equipment of these buildings. There are 2,200 pupils now enrolled.

KILLS ONE, WOUNDS ANOTHER.

Man Loses His Life While Saving Child From Choking.

Hannibal, Mo., Nov. 17.—Jacob Beltz of Barry, Ill., with a long knife killed John Woods and fatally wounded William Stewart in front of the Central hotel here, where Beltz had been a guest several weeks. Beltz fled but was captured after thrilling pursuit by police. Eye witnesses claim the tragedy resulted from popular notions of Beltz, who it is alleged was choking a child of Mrs. Clara Gilson, the hotel proprietor, when Woods interfered and was killed. Stewart was stabbed when he tried to separate the belligerents.

CHOLERA SHIP IN QUARANTINE.

Steamer Has Two Suspicious Deaths and Nine Sick on Board.

New York, Nov. 17.—Two deaths from what may have been cholera occurred during the voyage of the steamer San Giorgio, which arrived here from Naples and Palermo. In addition the vessel had a sick list of nine.

The San Giorgio was detained at quarantine for examination of its passengers. Health Officer Doty said that the symptoms of the sick passengers were of a suspicious nature, indicative of cholera.

WAGE CUT IS LAID TO SUIT

Imperial Glass Company Blames Reduction of Employees' Pay on Prosecution of Combine by Federal Government—Judge Is Rapped

Washington, Nov. 17.—In a statement issued by the department of justice it is declared that prison sentences for officials of corporations who are guilty of violating the anti-trust law is preferred to punishment by fines. Federal Judge James S. Young of Pittsburgh is criticized in the statement for his "mistaken leniency."

The case in point is that of the so-called window glass trust, or the Imperial Window Glass company, which recently dissolved itself after the heads of the corporation and the corporation itself had been fined by Judge Young.

The department of justice was stirred to the issuance of its pronouncement by the publication of a dispatch from Pittsburgh announcing that the officers of the company had served notice on its employees of a 30 per cent. cut in wages.

Wage Cut Laid to Suit.
In making the announcement, the blame for the wage reduction was laid on the department of justice because it successfully prosecuted the company.

The department's statement says in part: "The Imperial Window Glass company manufactured no glass, but was purely a selling agency."

"It was not until the company had brought into combination with it manufacturers of about 97 per cent. of the entire hand-blown window glass manufactured in the United States that it was determined to commence business."

Prices Raised 70 Per Cent.
"It began business in January, 1910. By October 1, 1910, prices had been advanced 70 per cent. over what they were in April, 1909."

"It issued 15 factories for the sole purpose of keeping them closed and removing their product from the market."

Indictments were found against the 15 directors and officers of the company.

Jail Immunity Denied.
Before the trial overtures were made to the attorney general suggesting that the defendants would enter a plea of nolo contendere if he would agree to the infliction of fines instead of full sentences. The attorney general refused to do this.

The following day the defendants appeared in court in Pittsburgh and interposed pleas of nolo contendere, and in spite of the opposition of the prosecution the court let the individual defendants off with a fine of $500 each and fined the corporation only $2,500. Held "Mistaken Leniency."

The department's statement declares that a reduction of 30 per cent. in wages is not warranted by the dissolution of the trust and adds that "if the rumored action should prove to be substantiated by fact it would indicate a very mistaken leniency on the part of the court, which it is hoped would not be followed on any other similar occasion."

PLAN TO PRESERVE FORESTS.

Illinois Club Women Would Save Ogle County Pine Woods.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 17.—This was conservation day for the state Federation of Women's clubs, and especial attention was directed to the last remaining white pine forest in Illinois, in Ogle county near the Rock river.

The women, after hearing an earnest appeal by Mrs. Elmer E. Kendall of Chicago, chairman of the committee on forestry, determined to make a united effort this winter to have this tract set aside as a state forest reserve, and a bill to this end will be introduced in the legislature. The Ogle county forest comprises some 600 acres and is owned by 16 individuals. Mrs. Ella W. Peattie read an original poem on the subject, and Dr. Wallace W. Atwood of the University of Chicago delivered an illustrated lecture on conservation in Illinois.

SPAIN-VATICAN TANGLE GROWS.

Obligatory Military Service Plan Bites Clericals to Protest.

Madrid, Nov. 17.—The new project of obligatory military service now under discussion in the senate threatens further to complicate the relations between the Spanish government and the Vatican, as it does not exempt either the secular or the monastic clergy. The bishop of Madrid, voicing the clerical protest which characterizes the bill as the most anti-clerical feature of the ministerial program, declared that it violated the canonical law, authorizing ecclesiastical immunity, and was especially offensive in that it would deplete the ranks of the clergy.

Indict Ex-Organs for Murder.
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 17.—Thomas K. Sheridan, former state's attorney of Johnson county, was indicted by the grand jury at Vienna for the murder of Harry Thacker, last September at that place.

King George to Visit India.
London, Nov. 17.—It is officially announced that the king and queen hope to visit India and hold a coronation durbar at Delhi January 1, 1912.

I NEVER HAD A GIRL LIKE THAT BEFORE.

A GREAT FALLING OFF. PHILOSOPHICAL. QUITE CORRECT.

"How thin little Jimmy looks after his two weeks in the mountains. Did he really fall off much?"
"Yop; cliff, house, barn, cherry trees, everything!"
"My little man, don't you think your time would be better employed in Sunday school?"
"P'raps you're right, old boss, I ain't got a bite all day!"
Jim—He says he has a weak heart. Jack—Well, he's right about it; at least it's brittle if it isn't weak. Why, his heart is broken by three or four girls every summer.

We believe in a revision of prices downward whenever it is possible, and we live up to our belief.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON.

W H, all the kind folks who contributed suggestions for the benefit of my shy lady, please consider themselves heartily thanked both by her and me.

I couldn't use all your letters because some of them duplicated suggestions and because some of them came after I had written on the subject, but I enjoyed them all very much.

It was so pleasant, you see, to hear you folks speak and know you were all there. Every once in a while I have a terrible wonder if I am playing still there. If there could be such a thing as a blind and deaf actor, who because of his inability, would have no way of knowing how large and how well pleased his audience were I think he'd feel the way I sometimes do.

And if after the play some of his audience should come up and grasp him by the hand to let him know they had sat through the play and had enjoyed it, I think he'd feel the way I do when I receive letters from you folks.

I had the pleasure of being a witness to a very charming little incident this noon.

A pretty young girl who came out of a restaurant just ahead of me, slipped quietly up to a big cart horse which stood by the curb, and shyly offered him a couple of lumps of sugar. The big creature nuzzled the sugar up out of her hand with something of the delighted surprise, as a horse could show, and the girl stroked his big nose for a moment and then passed on.

Such a little thing to do but such a sweet one. And that isn't meant for a pun by any means. I think it's people who have little time for kindnesses like that who make the account of the world's joys and sorrows show a credit on the joy side. Are you one of them?

"While you were writing about how a man hates to smell perfume on a woman," queried the masculine man who occasionally does me the honor to read my humble feminine pages, "why didn't you say something about gasoline?"

"Yes, that's what I mean—gasoline. Don't you know there's lots of women having that smell hanging over them all the time. Anything to do with automobiles? No, I suppose it's from having things cleaned. That's what they tell me, anyhow. I don't know much about that. All I know is that sometimes after I dance or even just shake hands with a woman, my hands will smell of gasoline for the rest of the evening. Internal, I call it. You hear girls talk about getting the smell of tobacco from dancing with a man who smokes. Now I put it up to you if tobacco isn't a much more decent smell than gasoline?"

Reminds me of the hero of a magazine story I read the other day. He found my lady's white glove lying on the table and in true chivalric style pressed it passionately to his lips.

But modern cleaning methods were evidently too much for chivalry, for his most unchangeable comment was, "It smelled of gasoline."

Those of us who are not millionaires must of necessity live ourselves to the cleaners occasionally. But I don't think that means we need smell of gasoline.

For the sake of civility and incidentally common decency, instead of laying the cleaned waists or gloves promptly in the drawer where they will scent up everything else and incidentally also upon themselves a half-scented half-gasoline odor, that is worse than straight gasoline, why not make it an invariable practice to hang them for a day or two in the fresh air?

Seems to me that is a bit of trouble that would bring in good six per interest in results.

QUALIFYING FOR HAPPINESS.

By MARY HUSSELL.

Of course, if you are the average person you have thought what you would do if you were rich. You plan an ideal life. You know that you would be good, tempered if you had no money worries. You are sure you would be kind—if the kindness involved no self-sacrifice. You are sure you would be happy if you had the means to gratify every wish. Of course you plan to do good deeds. Probably you also plan to do some that are not so good. You probably intend to even some old scores.

In short, even in your plans, you are just a plain human creature, neither better nor worse than the average. You would probably be on making the same mistakes in the golden future that you have in the present. No miracle of nature is ever worked in a day.

If you are hard to deal with now, you would be hard to deal with in the golden future. If you are a kill joy today in the family circle, you will be the same even though you have gained the Alhambra touch.

The glitter of gold would grow to be as commonplace as that of the pennies when you no longer needed to count the cost.

I believe much evil is due to lack of the means for happiness. Money does not make people happy in any sense, but many a life has come to ruin for lack of enough for daily needs. But the lives where there is too much money are just as sure to go astray.

You will still be you—no matter how you may plan. Money will not make you sweet-tempered, if you have been for years cultivating a crabbed disposition.

You think you are good natured perhaps, but just stop and study over the matter a bit. You are good natured when all goes well with you. That is just a thin veneer and is not warranted to last long.

"BOOTLEGGERS" SHOOT UP TOWN

Plot Follows Arrest of Leader by Seventy-Five Followers.

Shreveport, La., Nov. 17.—Following the shooting of Thomas Hickey, the alleged leader of a gang of bootleggers, by Deputy Sheriff Kelley of Oil City, twenty miles north of here, Hickey's sympathizers gathered to the number of 75 and began "shooting up" the town.

Officers were rushed to Oil City in automobiles from Shreveport. They arrested several of the ringleaders and restored quiet in the town.

A number of shots were fired by the rioters, but none of the townspeople were injured.

Men, women and children ran into stores or homes and barred the doors and windows.

Falls Seven Stories; Lives.
 Bismarck, N. D., Nov. 17.—Losing his balance, Richard Woyls, a brick-layer's helper, pitched to the ground from the seventh story of a building where he was working, and the only injuries sustained were two broken ribs, a cut on the head and a general shaking up.

Various Matters of Regular Business
 Are Being Considered—Other Monroe News.

(Special to the Gazette.)
 Monroe, Wis., Nov. 17.—The Green county board of supervisors spent yesterday afternoon at the asylum and poor farm, with the purpose of making an inspection of the men's dormitory, the state board recommending a more suitable building. Action will be taken upon the state board's recommendation at this session. The Citizens bank was chosen as the county depository, submitting a bid to pay 2 per cent on daily balances. This afternoon the board will elect a supervisor of assessment and asylum and poor commissaries. Petitions for road aid have been applied for by Clinton, York, Spring Grove, Brooklyn and Exeter. It is expected the board will finish their work by Saturday and adjourn.

Received Prize.
 Miss Ella Maher, of this city, received the award of $15 offered by The Farmer's and rover's Journal for the best paper written on the Chicago garment worker's strike. Miss Maher competed with fifty others from all parts of the union, and three prizes were offered.

Football.
 Alumni of the high school, who in the past have starred as football players, have consented to play the high school team at the fair grounds on Thanksgiving afternoon. It has been feared for some time no game would be played on this holiday, as the sport has been practically at a standstill in the school.

TO BEGIN WORK ON
CAR BARN MONDAY

Measurements Taken Yesterday Afternoon for Equipment of Street Car Line to Be Purchased.

Chester P. Wilson of Rockford, engineer in charge of the construction work for the proposed car barn building of the Janesville Traction company, P. H. Terrell of Chicago, architect who designed the barn, were here yesterday afternoon with F. G.
 Hubbard of Milwaukee, engineer for the Pulk company, manufacturers of diamond crossing ways and special railway equipment, to take measurements for the necessary equipment at the barn site and for the crossings at the belt line and at the railroad the new structure will not be commenced until about Monday. The old building has not been entirely razed but all will be torn down this week.

 C. Kerch has the surveys for the location of the new plant and as soon as the old car barns are cleared away he will stake out the grounds and the contractors, James Shourer and Ford & Boos, will begin on the new building. The contract calls for the completion of the work in sixty days of actual labor.

BOSTON TEA PARTY
HELD ON TUESDAY

Janesville Chapter of the D. A. R.
 Met With Miss Susie Jeffris at Unique Affair.

On Tuesday last the November meeting of the Janesville chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was held at the residence of Miss Susie Jeffris, 18 South Jackson street. It took the form of a Boston Tea Party, the ladies being in costume and the refreshments of the colonial period. The house was most tastefully decorated with flags and bunting and the serving of a colonial punch, made from an original recipe of General Israel Putnam, tea, election cake, so seldom found on tables today, caraway seed cookies and the presentation to each guest of a miniature tea chest were some of the features of the afternoon. Mrs. A. F.
 Lovejoy read a paper on a "Colonial Thanksgiving," Miss Lilla Savorille and Miss Ada Lewis sang old colonial songs, Miss Belle Sherer accompanied them on the piano, and Mrs. H. H.
 Riley read a poem, "The Gambol Blues," which was illustrated by Robert V. which was illustrated by Mrs. W. D. Hodson, and Miss Keller and Mrs. George Kimball took part.
 There was also a business meeting.

Not Really "Wild Apples."

Researches by a horticultural expert show that the so-called "wild apples," or "wild crab," from which many of the present standard commercial varieties have sprung, were wayward descendants of trees originally imported from England and other foreign countries in the eighteenth century.

FREE ENTERTAINMENT
BEING PLANNED AT Y. M. C. A.

Exhibition of the Work Done Will Be Given During First Week of December.

At the meeting last evening of the Social Work committee of the Y. M. C.
 A. of which F. E. Clayton is chairman, it was decided to hold a free entertainment open to the general public during the first week of December.
 Gymnastic stunts, songs, music, vocal and instrumental, and selections by the orchestra will make up the program. These exhibitions proved popular and successful last winter and were largely attended. It is also planned to have an exceptionally good basketball game at the end of the entertainment. The public is cordially invited.

CLEVER EXHIBITION
AT THE EAGLES' HALL

Boxing Enthusiasts Witness Good
 Work in the Squared Circle
 Last Night.

Several hundred boxing enthusiasts, and followers of the squared circle, enjoyed three clever contests at Eagles' hall last evening when the first exhibition of the winter was held under the auspices of the Eagles.
 There were three contests scheduled and while one went but two rounds, the second, three, the last went most excellent satisfaction. The contests were merely exhibition events, no decisions being given by the referee or crowd, it being left to the public to decide for themselves which were the cleverest of the contestants.

There appears to be a diversity of opinion as to the best between "Kid" Troubles, a clever Chicago boxer, and Jack Ryan, a local man who is employed in the Northwestern yards.
 The contest went eight rounds and should be called a draw as both men finished strong and while Troubles did some clever work, ducking, dodging and using good foot and head work, his opponent followed him up and every time he landed a blow it counted. Ryan was not forced to take much punishment owing to the fact that Troubles' blows lacked steam behind them and was apparently unmarked today.

Troubles is a heady little fellow, who knows the game thoroughly and proved very clever. The first two rounds were even, the third and fourth saw some pretty mixing, the fifth was more on the fancy style and the sixth saw them both mixing it lively. The same was true of the seventh and the eighth, both men being on their feet when the song rang out. As no decision is given, some boxing enthusiasts thought Troubles had the best of it and general opinion of those seated in the gym is that the contest should be called a draw.

Jack Delaney of Dallas, Texas, who has sparred here several times and has considerable cleverness as a boxer, was forced to quit in the third round of his exhibition with "Young" Ryan of Fond du Lac. Delaney out-boxed his opponent, who was a glutton for punishment and who landed good, stiff, hard punches, sending Delaney to the ropes in the third round, which ended the contest.

In the first bout of the evening a youngster named "Kid" DeMunn of Belvidere did not do pleased with a local aspirant for glove honors named Minore. DeMunn proved himself the master of his opponent from start to finish and hit him at will with both hands showing careful training and good teaching. In the second round the gloves came down and that ended the contest. DeMunn has a future before him in the game if he follows it up as he showed much skill and good ring generalship. The contests were well attended, members of the exhibition committee and county officers being guests of the club.

FOUND HIGH SCHOOL
IN GOOD CONDITION

State Inspectors Submitted A Very Gratifying Report of the Conditions at Local High School.

Professor Buell has received a communication from the state inspectors who visited the high school last week Friday. Their report speaks very favorably of the local school and the work which is done here. The committee consisted of Prof. Trowler, secretary of the inspection committee, and Professor Hatch and Pike.
 After treatment of some of the details of the inspection regarding the classes and teachers, their report read as follows:

"The organization of your school was considered good, and the management excellent. The pupils passed through the halls of their classes with better order than is usually found in large high schools. The spirit of the school was very good, and the scholarship was above the average. In general our inspectors thought your school in exceptionally good condition, and they enjoyed the day spent there very much."

Such a statement from the state inspectors is very gratifying to the school authorities as well as to the public at large. It shows that this educational institution of the city is of a very high standard.

BYRNE BEATEN BY
ROCKFORD SKATER

Local Roller Racer Lost Last Night to Arthur Getz by Fall in Twelfth Lap Around Course.

Arthur Getz of Rockford, won the roller skating race at the Frank Side rink last evening from West Byrne, a local skater. The contest was for sixteen laps around the local floor and up until the twelfth Byrne was in the lead. He gave then, but he fell and Getz went ahead of him.
 Byrne recovered quickly from the fall but could not get up until the ground was less than half a lap behind Getz at the finish. Getz is a clever skater and was a formidable opponent for Byrne. Byrne is speedy and would undoubtedly have won, but for the accident.

 gins to regard all scales with suspi-

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous membrane of the Eustachian tube.
 When this tube is inflamed you have a humming sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be improved forever. The cause of deafness is caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.
 We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Dr. Williams' Catarrh Cure. Send for literature, free.

COLLEGE TEAM TO PLAY HERE FRIDAY

Deloit College Basketball Five To Be Matched Against Lakota Cardinals Tomorrow Night.

The basketball team of Deloit college will play in this city tomorrow night against the Lakota Cardinals at the West Side Skating rink. The five will be composed of the pick of Deloit college basketball players, who are said to be equally as fast as the University squad which played here two weeks ago and defeated the Cardinals. Kenneth Jeffries is manager of the Lakota, and the recent defeat of the Cardinals and the also run the "All-Stars" gave them the first half of the contest last week, has inspired them to hard practice in preparation for a good, stiff rub with Deloit.

RATES SUSPENDED ON
FOURTEEN RAILROADS

Attempt by Carriers to Increase Tariffs Between Mississippi and Missouri Rivers Thwarted.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The interstate commerce commission have blocked the attempt of fourteen railroad lines to resume advance of rates between the Mississippi and Missouri rivers, which had already been condemned by a suspension order in what is known as the Burnham-Munger case of Kansas City, Mo.

The decision will be of vital importance as a precedent as to rate-making by basic points. The commission ordered the class rates on shipments moving from points east of St. Louis to Kansas City and beyond. The principle involved is that rates from the east to Kansas City should be lower than the aggregate of rates from the east to St. Louis and St. Louis to Kansas City.

Railroads appealed to the courts and the Supreme court of the United States sustained the commission. Recently the roads gave notice of the contemplated restoration of the old rates. The roads which filed these schedules include the Atchafalpa, Topeka & Santa Fe; Chicago & Alton; Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; Chicago Great Western; Chicago & Milwaukee & St. Paul; Chicago & Northwestern; Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific; Illinois Central; Iowa Central; Missouri, Pacific, and Wabash.

REVOLT IN MEXICO IS NIPPED.

Plans of Madero and Magon Thwarted by the Government.

City of Mexico, Nov. 17.—A revolutionary movement with ramifications throughout at least twelve states of the republic has just been nipped in the bud through the vigilance of the federal authorities.

The movement was attributed to Francisco I. Madero, erstwhile candidate for the presidency in opposition to General Diaz, and Ricardo Flores

 a prison sentence at Florence, Ariz

FORTY YEARS AGO

The Janesville Gazette, Nov. 17, 1870.—Jottings.—By action of the board of supervisors the Gazette has been made the official paper of the county. Hereafter full reports of the proceedings of the county board will be published in the three editions of our paper. The people will be able to get the news of the county, and the representatives will have a report for future reference.

To the efforts of the democratic alderman of the second ward, the irrepressible A. Rogers, can be attributed the taking down of awning sheds and signs from the business block on North Main street. The first National Bank of Evansville was organized and authorized to do business on the first of October, with L. T. Pullen as president and J. M. Bennett as cashier.

Frank Parker, formerly of this city, will play Rudolph, of New York, a match game of billiards for the championship, on December 10th, at Cincinnati.

The friends of Rev. G. E. Chauncey, formerly of Union in this county, will regret to learn that he is very sick, at Olathe, Kansas, a few miles from Leavenworth.

We are informed that E. V. H. Carpenter, Esq., Deputy Grand Commissioner of the Knights Templar of Wisconsin, will make an official visit to the commandery in this city about the middle of December.

The county tax just levied amounts to $101,030.70. The tax levied and collected for 1869 was $112,205.30, a difference of $11,174.60. Economy seems to be the aim of the present board, which is commendable in view of the failure of a portion of the crops and the consequent scarcity of money.

The Lady and the Sheep.

Some of the members of the British legation were talking about the late slaying of Persia.

"When the shah was in London," said a young man, "he amused himself at a dinner party at a great residence in Park lane by appraising the beauty of the ladies present in number of sheep. Thus for a 1,200 countess, he said he would give 1,200 sheep; for a tall, slim baroness he said he would give 2,000 sheep; for a peeress of middle age he said he would give 250 sheep, and so on.

"Finally the shah came to the beautiful Mrs. Willis James. Everybody waited in anxious silence to hear the old baroness state her value in sheep, for she was thought to be the most beautiful woman in London.

"The shah looked at Mrs. James tenderly. He shook his head and sighed. "This lady," he said, "is out of the question. Neither I nor any other man in the world owns as many sheep as she is worth."

A Deliberate Native.

In a certain section of the country, where the natives take life easy, a young man and his sister were one day sitting on the porch when a funeral passed. The boy, who was whistling in a chair tilted comfortably back against the side of the house on its hind legs, remarked:

"I reckon ol' man Johnson's got about the biggest funeral that's ever been held around hyer."

"A pretty good sized one, is it?" questioned the sister.

"You betcher!" the boy answered.

"I would like to see it," replied the girl. "What a pity I ain't facin' that way!"

Hallbut.

Hallbut is the "holy hut" or founder. The founder place or hut was called holy, it is supposed, because it was chiefly used as food on the fast days of the church. "Hollyhook" is the holy hook or mallow, which got that name because it was brought from Palestine.

SUNNY MONDAY

Sunny Monday laundry soap contains a wonderful dirt-starter which saves half the rubbing. The soap itself does most of the work—you merely assist it. Your poor back will appreciate the difference at once.

Sunny Monday will do its best work in any kind of water—hot, cold, hard or soft. All waters look alike to Sunny Monday.

DELIVERY HORSES

And Horses Doing Heavy Teaming, need Feed that will Keep them hard and capable of doing a full day's work every day in the year.

Winter is here with its cold and snow and slush and rain and the most important item for every horse owner to consider is feed. Proper feeding will keep your horses in good condition enable them to withstand the hardships of winter and do much more work than any other one thing you can do for them. Hence the feed problem is the most important one you have to consider. When you buy feed you want the most for your money.

Case's Molasses Feed

Contains more protein and less waste or fibre than any other feed on the market. This statement comes from the laboratory of the University of Wisconsin.

This feed is composed of corn, barley, bran and molasses. It is cheaper than oats to feed because you can feed four quarts of this feed and get better results than if you fed six quarts of oats. It is not as "heating" as corn and is the CHEAPEST FEED YOU CAN BUY BECAUSE A FEED THAT MAKES YOU MONEY OR SAVES YOU MONEY IS NOT AN EXPENSE.

Over four hundred Rock County farmers feed it—and most of the careful horsemen in Janesville feed it. It's fine for delivery horses.

Read What the Shurtleff Company Have to Say:

"We have tried your Molasses Feed for the past three years and it will do all you claim for it. We know that it has done much to keep our horses in condition for the hard work they are compelled to do. We recommend it to every horse owner."

Shurtleff Co.

Remember this—CASE'S MOLASSES FEED is guaranteed to do more to keep your horses in good condition than any feed on the market. If it doesn't fill them full of vim and vigor and make their hair sleek and glossy we will refund the money on each and every purchase that for any reason is not satisfactory. That's all you need to know. Give us a trial today. Don't wait till the feed bin is empty. Phone or write for a trial order today.

Where His Interest Lay.

It was at a ball game between Chicago and Pittsburgh. The score was tied; two men were out, a runner was at bat. The crowd was too excited to be noisy, says Lippincott's Magazine. A sporting editor had taken his neighbor to the game. The neighbor was not a fan, but he had succumbed to the delights of "traveling on a pass" and was having a real, garrulous, good time. At the moment when there wasn't a heart beating on the bleachers, and the grandstanders were "unseated with suspense, the sporting editor's neighbor omitted this: "Look, Jake! Look at that coke train! Did you ever see one engine pulling so many cars? I'm gonna count 'em!"

BREAKS UP A COLD IN SEVERAL HOURS

Most effective and harmless way to cure a severe cold and all its grippe misery.

There is not one grain of quinine in Pope's Cold Compound, which, when taken every two hours, until three consecutive doses are taken, will surely end the grippe and break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs.

It promptly relieves the most miserable neuralgia pains, headache, dizziness, sore throat, running of the nose, catarrhal affections, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges. Pope's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world which will cure your cold or grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25 cent package of Pope's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

Children's Dresses.

A good idea for mothers who like to have souvenirs of their little one's childhood is to paste in a book samples from every new dress or suit.

Not only is this interesting for both mothers and children in time to come, but it forms a valuable history of costumes for the period, and is of practical service as well as having variety in dress from year to year.

Pin Journeys to Appendix.

Chicago.—At the President hospital physicians found a pin in the appendix of six-year-old Josephine Shoenberg.

The pin was straight and had traveled through the child's body without damaging any other part. She will recover.

The case is considered remarkable because the pin had traveled more than fourteen feet through the oesophagus, stomach and bowels without perforating the walls.

In most cases where a pin has been swallowed it has pierced the wall of an intestine and lost itself in the tissues of the body, occasionally causing death.

Mail Clerks' Know Nicknames.

London.—Addressed from London to "Whisper, Devon," a letter has been delivered without delay at Tiverton, where one hundred years ago rogues and vagabonds were whipped round the town at the tail of a cart—hence the name Whisper, almost unknown to the present generation.

YOU

Did you ever stop to realize that it takes scientific, well directed effort by one who knows how, to accomplish even the task of saving a cord of wood with an old buck saw? A Change of Tune.

"Mamma, I'm tired of going to school."

"What's the matter, Willie?"

"The teacher."

"Now, don't you say a word against your teacher, Willie. I've no doubt you annoy her dreadfully, and she seems like a very nice sort of person."

"Well, she said this morning that she didn't think I had much of a brain."

"What! Did she say that? Well, of all the coarse impudence! You shouldn't go back there another day."

Exit Willie, grinning.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Qualified.

"Dickey," said his mother, "when you divided those five caramels with your sister did you give her three?"

"No, ma. I thought they wouldn't come out even, so I ate one 'fore I began to divide."—United Presbyterian.

A Coincidence.

"I'm afraid, George," said his fiancée, "that you are going from bad to worse."

For Blunted Scissors.

When your scissors become blunted and require sharpening, take an ordinary knife, upon which place the scissors as if in the act of cutting.

By drawing the steel along the blades in this manner several times, you will bring your scissors again into good condition.

Making a Cork Fit.

Rather than attempt to pare down a cork to make it fit a smaller bottle, cut two wedge-shaped slices out of it across the small end, at right angles, and you will then have a cork that will fit quite tight and snug.

Outside the Pale of Law.

A farmer near Exeter, Mass., had a flock of turkeys which a train ran through, killing ten of them. His could not collect damages because turkeys are not animals, and the law does not require the railroads to fence against birds, aeroplanes or balloons.

To Make Their Names Live.

Men of business may organize large industries and may disappear out of human remembrance unless they leave the wisdom to do something substantial for posterity with the means which they accumulate.—Sir Oliver Lodge.
